Who are Onkwehon:we Midwives?

Onkwehon:we Midwives Collective is a mobile (home-based) midwifery practice that provides traditional midwifery services, including prenatal care, labor and delivery support, postpartum care, and related counseling and education. We are also offering a system to educate/support Indigenous women through all phases of her life. We would like to provide this knowledge to indigenous people using these activities throughout Akwesasne, surrounding areas, as well as other Haudenosaunee communities.

What is the Onkwehonwe Midwives Membership?

This Membership is being created to act as a support body to ensure:

- The OMC practice receives quality feedback from the Community
- Midwifery, maternal/child and reproductive health issues in the community is supported
- This includes sharing/learning traditional knowledge, current realities faced by Akwesasronon that are of interest and importance to our midwifery practice
- Increasing the awareness of reproductive health work

What am I being asked to do?

- Share your knowledge/Learn new knowledge
- Offer suggestions and support
- Participate in annual meetings
- Join in awareness and outreach activities

Should you feel that this is a group you would be interested in, please complete the form and outline your background and experience which can help contribute to the success of the Onkwehon:we Midwives Collective.
